HOMEWORK

Procedure:

1. Put together a well researched essay of at least three (3) paragraphs about one of the amendments you have chosen to keep.
2. Find out if there have been any challenges or controversies to the amendment chosen.
3. Start with an introduction, and include a body and conclusion.
4. Write about the controversy or challenge to the amendments use. Include your individual opinion.

You may utilize some of these great websites for your research.

U.S. Constitution Center
http://www.constitutioncenter.org/constitution/

Charter's of Freedom
www.archives.gov/exhibit_hall/charters_of_freedom/charters_of_freedom.html

The Bill of Right's Institute
www.billofrightsinstitute.org

The Bill of Rights Defense Committee
www.bordc.org

The Bill of Rights: A Brief History
http://archive.aclu.org/library/pbp9.html

Evaluation Rubric

Category & Score	Beginning 1	Developing 2	Very Good 3	Exemplary 4	Score
Group Project	Did not participate in group discussions	Contributed to selection process.	Participated in a meaningful discussion.	Participated in a meaningful discussion and used rational persuasive means by which to convince others.	50%
Essay	Essay lacked a topic sentence, and an introduction, middle, and end.	Essay had a topic sentence, and a beginning, middle and end, but not much meaningful research was completed.	Essay had a clear topic sentence, beginning, middle, and end, and had research that was meaningful. Essay could have contained more information.	Essay had a beginning, middle and end, and was well thought out, researched, and executed.	50%
				Total Score:	100%